PUBLIC HEARING

OLD BUSINESS

1. Council was provided with the December 2025 rental data for the Elgin Community Center.
2. The Business of the Quarter was announced, and Mayor Melissa Emmons congratulated JB Nealy Fence as the new Business of the Quarter.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Chief Anders informed the Council of the following:
 - a. Informed council that the Toy Round Up had the opportunity to help 41 families (over 100 children), including food vouchers for IGA. Thanks to loyal donations, we can continue to support the program and keep it going strong.
2. LT informed the council that he is beginning the process of renewing the SRO grant.
 - a. New cars will be here in a few months. EPD will be selling a few cars soon.
 - b. LT informed the council that the SRO grant would cover the SRO conferences, but it would take a bit longer to recoup the money.
3. Clifton Emmons surprised Mayor Emmons by presenting her with an official Town of Elgin Mayor's Badge.

COUNCIL BRIEFING

Council Member Brad Hanley provided an update on the most recent Stormwater Management Meeting with Kershaw County.

Council Member Brandy Bradley: Expressed gratitude to the Town of Elgin and the community for their help with the Toy Round Up.
